

Data Security

The personal data provided above will be stored and processed by the “Verein zur Förderung der Harfenkultur” (Association for the Promotion of Harp Culture), the organizer of the European Harp Symposium "Stellae Matutinae", in the context of the fulfilment of the association's statutory activities and membership administration. Through this permanent relationship, the Association for the Promotion of Harp Culture is also allowed to provide information about the association's activities. The protection of personal data is carried out by appropriate organisational and technical precautions. These precautions relate in particular to protection against unauthorised, unlawful or accidental access, processing, loss, use and manipulation.

In order to fulfil our contractual or legal obligations, the purpose of data processing or if there is a legitimate interest in the business transactions of (third parties), it may also be necessary to transmit the data to third parties. Possible recipients can be: private and public bodies that disclose or require information in connection with membership, public authorities, IT and telecommunications service providers. This transfer of data is carried out exclusively on the basis of the GDPR.

In accordance with applicable data protection requirements, we are obliged to delete personal data immediately as soon as the purpose for processing has ceased to exist in accordance with Article 5 (1) (e) GDPR. In this context, we would like to point out that legal retention obligations and periods constitute a legitimate purpose for the processing of personal data.

In any case, data will be stored and stored by us in personal form until the termination of the membership or beyond that for the retention periods of the BAO under tax law. If there is a difference for individual processing purposes, this will be carried out for the respective purpose.

You have the right to information from the association about your own personal data as well as to correction or deletion or to restriction of processing, as well as a right to object to processing and the right to data portability. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority (<https://www.dsb.gv.at>).
