

Folge den Sternen – Follow the Stars
European Harp Symposium

12 – 18 April 2025, Feldkirch, Austria

stellaematutinae.org

Follow the stars to Vorarlberg!

What began with a fleeting wish at the sight of a shooting star is now becoming reality. The European Harp Symposium is coming to Feldkirch! You can expect exciting concerts, inspiring conversations and certainly many unforgettable moments! I look forward to welcoming you in 2025!

Prof. Viktor Hartobanu, Artistic Director

The European Harp Symposium "Stellae Matutinae" celebrates the harp in all its aspects from 12 to 18 April 2025 and brings amateurs and professionals from all over Europe to Feldkirch.

In 16 concerts from baroque to jazz, from solo artists to quintets, you will meet young talents, our "morning stars", but also the biggest stars of the European harp scene. In addition, 9 workshops and 5 masterclasses offer deep insights into pedagogical, aesthetic, historical and musicological topics. The symposium will be accompanied by a colourful supporting program and exhibitions of the world's largest harp makers.

meet our stars!

Sylvain Blassel – FR/NL
Benjamin Creighton Griffiths – UK
Emanuela Degli Esposti – IT
Magdalena Hoffmann – DE
Isabelle Moretti – FR
Adrian Nowak – PL/AT
Lena Rummel – DE
Monika Stadler – AT

Jana Boušková – CZ/UK
Eva Curth – DE
Viktor Hartobanu – DE/AT Giuliano Marco Mattioli – IT
Elisa Netzer – CH
Elisabeth Plank – AT Park Stickney – US/CH/FR/UK
plus guests

Tickets for the festival will be available to buy mid November through our website. Most of the events and exhibitions take place in the main building of the Stella Vorarlberg Private University of Music. The workshops and seminars will be held in English. The Symposium does not organise accommodation.

Please visit our website where we will be posting regular updates on tickets and all events.

stellaematutinae.org